

ACCOUNT MANAGER

If you are an experienced Account Manager and would like to join us to work on exciting new and existing clients then get in touch.

You will manage and deliver a range of integrated communications from press through to TV, across a variety of big brand clients. There will be opportunities to demonstrate your creative and innovative approach to delivering great work and excellent client service.

We want you to bring:

- understanding and passion for great creative work
- previous broadcast experience is essential
- solid TTL knowledge, along with digital know-how
- excellent attention to detail and a high level of accuracy
- excellent communication and presentation skills
- excellent time management and organisational skills
- the ability to work under pressure, managing large volumes of work and meeting tight deadlines
- the ability to build strong, long-lasting client relationships quickly
- previous agency account handling experience
- sound strategic thinking
- flexibility, adaptability and self-motivation

You will also have curiosity, energy, a challenger point of view and initiative and you will want to have fun whilst still being able to nail the task.
