

JUNIOR COPYWRITER WANTED

We are looking for a copywriter who is at the start of a long and promising career but has some previous experience.

Someone who will lovingly craft every single word and sentence they create.

Someone who loves writing but hates bad spelling, poor punctuation and lazy grammar.

Someone who will bounce between big and small briefs, work with every kind of creative on every account in the building without breaking a sweat or missing a deadline.

In short, a great all-rounder, with a flair for copy and concepts across any channel, including digital. Sound like you?

If you have some previous agency experience, are able to work on your own or as part of a team, we'd like to hear from you.

For more information on the role or to apply please send your CV and examples of your work to mcr-recruitment@tbwamanchester.co.uk.
